Restaurant Dining

The Bay of Many Coves Executive chef Mark Jensen prepares a menu that reflects the abundance of fresh produce available in Marlborough. Our region produces the finest harvest – from green shell mussels and succulent salmon to cherries, stone fruits, olives and grapes – and its all as delicious as it is good for you.

World class views of the Queen Charlotte Sound can also be enjoyed from any vantage point in the restaurant. On chillier evenings nestle by the fireplace and unwind over Marlborough wine and engaging conversation.

The cellar list highlights some of New Zealand's finest vintage wines and most famous labels. Naturally in the heart of a wine-growing region we take pride in hand selecting the best Marlborough wines for your enjoyment.

Getting Here

The Marlborough Sounds describes an area at the top of the South Island of New Zealand, featuring an intricate series of native bush-clad bays and coves sheltered from the open sea.

Within the Marlborough Sounds is the seaside township of Picton, the access port to all interisland ferry services from Wellington. Two companies offer daily ferry services between Wellington and Picton, linking New Zealand's North and South Islands. The scenic cruise across Cook Strait takes approximately 3 hours; vessels carry both passengers and vehicles.

Bay of Many Coves Resort lies just 30 minutes north of Picton.

There are no roads in or out of the resort.

Regular boat services depart Picton throughout the day to provide access to the resort.
